

Position Title: ECCHO Cohort Member
Salary & Hours: $20/hour approx. 15 hours/month;
flexibility for evening and some weekend hours
Location: Dane, Rock, or Milwaukee County
Direct Supervisor: Local Program Coordinator in County

ECCHO Mission & Vision:

ECCHO's mission is to center the voices and lived experiences of Black, Indigenous, People of Color (BIPOC) to drive policy change and transform local systems of power to equitably meet the needs of communities.

Program Overview:

ECCHO stands for Engaging Communities to Change Health Outcomes. As a new, innovative civic engagement training program, we are committed to community-based leadership and decision-making that centers the views and experiences of those most affected by the issue. By investing in and lifting-up those most negatively impacted by generational and systemic racism in our state, ECCHO aims to increase the civic participation of communities, transform local systems of power, and improve health outcomes.

During a 9 month training program (January 2023 – September 2023), participants work together as a cohort to design and implement a community-based project that meets the health and civic health* needs of their community.

Each cohort is overseen by a Local Program Coordinator who compensates participants for their work and provides them with the training and resources they need to successfully implement their project, drive policy change, and transform local systems of power. For more information about ECCHO, visit our website HERE.

Job Description:

ECCHO seeks to recruit cohort members from either Milwaukee, Rock, or Dane county.

No prior experience with health equity or project management is needed. As we believe that those most impacted by the problem already have the skills needed to create change within their communities.

How to Apply:

We strongly encourage applications from cisgender and transgender women, and non-binary people who are Black, Indigenous, or a Person of Color. All interested applicants should complete and submit the online application HERE no later than 11:59pm on Friday, November 4, 2022.

**Civic health is defined as the civic, social, and political strength of a community, which is determined by the degree to which citizens participate in their communities, from local and state governance to interactions with friends or family. Public health researchers have long known that the civic health of a community contributes directly and indirectly to overall community health.*
